

Experimenting with Cousin 626

Commissioned story written by HamsterTrove for Chaz625

Reuben, the chubby, yellow-furred alien experiment, laid upon a single bed, anxiously tapping his fingers against his soft, furry tummy. Reuben, and his alien experiment cousin, Stitch, were both currently within a hotel room, situated upon the planet Sparlon. The room was tinted blue, as the only light source illuminating the room was the moonlight shining through the room's window.

Stitch and Reuben were currently on a week-long holiday together. Joining them were Jumba Jookiba (Stitch and Reuben's creator), Wendy Pleakley (Jumba's friend), and Gantu (Reuben's friend and current captain of the Galactic Armada). A few weeks after joining forces with Stitch, Jumba and Pleakley, and defeating Dr. Hamsterviel's army of evil experiment clones, Reuben had brought up the idea of having a holiday together to Jumba and Gantu. As Reuben and Gantu had previously been contractually obliged enemies with Stitch, Jumba, and Pleakley, the short, sandwich-obsessed experiment wanted to make it very clear that everyone was on good terms with each other now.

Jumba and Gantu had both agreed to this idea, and Reuben had happily agreed to Jumba's request of bringing along Pleakley and Stitch. Once all the necessary planning and packing was sorted out on Earth, the group of five aliens met up together on an agreed point on the island of Kauai. They then all got into an advanced spaceship that Jumba owned, and set off for the beautiful, far-off planet of Sparlon. Sparlon was well-known amongst many alien societies for being a planet full of incredible natural wonders, beautiful landscapes, and well-kept hotels. Reuben, Gantu and Jumba had collectively agreed they would stay at a hotel that was situated near a very picturesque lake, which was comprised of edible blue gel.

Once they arrived at the hotel, Stitch and Reuben put away their belongings in their fairly small shared room, Jumba and Pleakley put away their belongings in their average-sized shared room, and Gantu put away his belongings in a notably large room, that was suitable for his huge size. The group of aliens spent their first day enjoying the sights of the local forests, swimming around and stuffing their faces in the blue gel lake, and playing some fun ball games on one of Sparlon's grassy fields. The ball that they used for these games was a speaking, artificially intelligent orb that Jumba had brought along.

Once they decided they'd had enough fun outside, the group of aliens returned to the hotel. They enjoyed some delicious drinks and food at the hotel's bar, and watched some bizarre, but entertaining, alien shows on the widescreen television present within Gantu's room. While inside Gantu's room, Reuben and Stitch insisted that Gantu make good use of the room service available at the hotel. Gantu went along with their demands and ordered up plenty of snacks and drinks for everyone. Reuben gluttonously stuffed himself with sandwiches, and Stitch ate an incredible amount of cake and pizza. All five aliens felt very full and relaxed that evening.

Once the sky was dark, and the planet's two moons had become fully visible, the aliens wished each other good night and headed to their respective rooms. Once Stitch and Reuben got into their room, the two of them talked with each other, and playfully tussled with each other, for a couple of hours before they decided it was time for bed. Stitch fell asleep after a few minutes, but Reuben found himself unable to fall asleep. Now that he was alone with Stitch, naughty, lustful thoughts were keeping Reuben awake.

Though he had never admitted it, Reuben had become very attracted to Stitch over the past couple of years. The chubby experiment was impressed by Stitch's feats of strength and agility. He found Stitch's loyalty and loving attitude to his adopted family endearing. He enjoyed seeing the cute, puppy-like side of Stitch's personality, as well as his raunchy and mischievous side. As far as Reuben was concerned, Stitch was a perfect mix of sweetness and naughtiness.

Right now though, Reuben wasn't thinking about how much he appreciated his blue-furred cousin's achievements or personality. He was much more focused on thinking about Stitch's body. After spending the day enjoying himself with Stitch, and getting tantalisingly close to his adorable cousin's fuzzy body as a result, Reuben was feeling horny and eager to have a more intimate form of fun with Stitch. As he laid in his bed, the horny experiment kept looking over to Stitch's softly snoring form, or looking up at the hotel room ceiling while fantasising about doing lewd things to Stitch's attractive body.

Reuben loved how Stitch looked. His long-eared cousin had a pleasantly plump and fluffy look to him. Stitch certainly wasn't fat, or even chubby like Reuben, but he had an endearing softness and roundness to his form. Juxtaposing that huggable softness were the sharp, yellowed teeth within Stitch's mouth, and the slightly curved, dark-blue claws upon his stubby fingers. Reuben liked that Stitch had a bit of ruggedness and danger to his appearance.

What Reuben liked most about Stitch's body though was his gorgeous bubble butt. Beneath the blue-furred creature's stubby tail were two plump, round butt cheeks, and an invitingly deep-looking butt crack. Throughout the day, Stitch's soft, doughy butt cheeks had been jiggling around alluringly. It took very little to make the pleasantly plump creature's ass jiggle. Whenever Stitch walked, his soft, fluffy butt cheeks cutely nodded up and down with each step he took.

Reuben fondly thought back to Stitch running around earlier in the day when they were playing ball games together. Stitch's bubble butt had been shaking and bouncing like jelly as he frantically dashed and jumped around. Reuben was grateful he'd had the self-control to not stare at Stitch's ass the whole time; he would have definitely got an erection if he'd done so.

As Stitch had briefly tossed and turned in his sleep, the blue-furred experiment was now sprawled out and laying belly-down on top of his bed's covers. Each time Reuben looked over to his sleeping cousin, he was able to see his soft, curvaceous butt. After forty minutes of staring and fantasising passed by, Reuben bit his lip with his two buck teeth and anxiously played with the fur of his pudgy, light-yellow coloured belly. Stitch's rump looked so irresistibly plump and squeezable; Reuben could hardly hold himself back from walking over to Stitch and playing with his cousin's beautiful butt cheeks.

After a couple of minutes of silent deliberation, Reuben ended up giving into his urges. The squat experiment hopped out of his bed and landed upon the hotel room's carpeted floor. Upon landing, Reuben's chubby, well-fed belly and thick, blubbery butt cheeks jiggled for a couple of seconds. The short, yellow-furred creature quietly snuck over towards Stitch's bed. Reuben's semi-erect cock and fuzzy balls gently bobbed around, and his pudgy belly and butt repeatedly jiggled, as he stealthily made his way towards his sleeping cousin.

Once he was stood in front of Stitch's bed, Reuben clambered up onto the bed, and moved himself so he was knelt in front of Stitch's enticingly plump ass. Reuben licked his lips with his purple-coloured tongue, as he took in the enticing sight of Stitch's well-rounded backside. The chubby, buck-toothed experiment stared at Stitch's soft, furry rump for a good twenty seconds, as he worked up the courage to do anything with it. Reuben leaned forward and reached out his hands towards his cousin's butt a couple of times, but he ended up pulling himself back both times. Upon doing this for the second time, Reuben frowned at his own cowardice and indecision.

Once those twenty seconds passed, Reuben let out a quiet, shaky sigh then nodded to himself. This time he was really going for it. For a third time, Reuben reached out his hands, but this time he kept going. The yellow-furred experiment placed the palm of his left hand against Stitch's left butt cheek, and the palm of his right hand against Stitch's right butt cheek. Following this, Reuben tenderly stroked his hands up and down the curved surface of Stitch's ample ass. The fat and fur upon the blue-furred experiment's butt felt delightfully soft and malleable.

"Mmn...you've been eatin' well, cousin~" Reuben said quietly as he repeatedly rubbed Stitch's plump butt.

After fifteen seconds of Reuben's affectionate rump-stroking passed by, the chubby experiment used his stubby, pointed fingers to squeeze both of Stitch's butt cheeks. Confident that Stitch was sound asleep, Reuben squeezed his cousin's furry cheeks quite firmly. The floppy-eared creature adored how easily his fingers sunk into the fat of Stitch's sexy, marshmallow-soft ass.

As if squeezing his butt had activated one of his body's functions, a moment later, Stitch's pink-coloured anus opened up and let loose a low-pitched fart over Reuben's face.

PBBRRRRrRrRrRRRHP!

The fat upon Stitch's butt cheeks subtly rippled as the experiment released his hot, intestinal gas. Reuben tightly closed his eyes and reeled back slightly, as the toasty heat and strong wind of Stitch's fart hit his face. After the initial surprise of feeling Stitch's fart, Reuben also found himself surprised that he was completely unfazed by the smell of his fuzzy cousin's flatus. Reuben wasn't sure if that was due to some of the peculiar alien food Stitch had been eating, or if that was simply an inherent ability he possessed as one of Jumba's genetic experiments. Either way, he was grateful he wasn't left loudly coughing after inhaling Stitch's ass-fumes.

Three seconds later, Reuben opened his eyes and grinned. He'd rather enjoyed feeling the warmth of Stitch's fart wash over his face. Being able to feel the strength of his cousin's butt-blast had also been an exciting experience for the apparently quite kinky creature. Reuben wanted to feel more of Stitch's farts against his face.

Reuben returned his hands to Stitch's soft, curvaceous butt cheeks. As soon as he'd done this, the chunky, little alien began to rub both of his hands against Stitch's ass cheeks in a circular motion. Reuben smiled and bit his lip slightly, as he enjoyed seeing his cousin's big, squishy cheeks reacting to his touch. After rubbing Stitch's bubble butt like this for twenty seconds or so, Reuben also began to occasionally squeeze Stitch's delightfully round cheeks. After twenty-five more seconds of butt play passed, Stitch's anus opened up again.

FBRRRRRRRRRRrRrRrRrRHHHT!

A slightly longer and louder fart blasted out of Stitch's butthole. The experiment's torrid gas washed over Reuben's face, and caused the yellow fur upon Reuben's face to be blown around. Reuben's smile only grew bigger as he felt Stitch's hot flatus warming up his furry face.

Once Stitch's fart came to an end, Reuben promptly returned to rubbing and squeezing his cousin's plump ass cheeks. After thirty seconds of this, Reuben decided to gently spread apart Stitch's butt cheeks, and move his face closer to Stitch's ass, so he could get a good look at this cousin's tight, pink pucker.

A couple of seconds after Reuben had moved his head closer to Stitch's butt, the pink pucker that Reuben was gazing at opened up once again.

PRRRHP!

A short, but notably loud, toot of a fart blasted out of Stitch's anus. Reuben tightly shut his eyes as a burst of exceptionally humid warmth washed over his face.

"Heh! Nice n' spicy~" Reuben quietly commented once Stitch's anus had puckered itself.

Once he'd said this, Reuben returned Stitch's cheeks to their normal position, but kept his face up close to them. With a fully erect cock at his crotch, Reuben continued to happily play with Stitch's butt for the next four minutes. As he did this, the chubby experiment gradually grew more and more horny and lustful. His rubbing became rougher, his squeezes became tighter, and his cheek-spreading became more frequent.

Every thirty seconds or so, Stitch's gassy rump would provide Reuben with a hot fart. The length, strength, and volume of Stitch's farts varied, but Reuben enjoyed feeling and hearing each one.

After four minutes of rubbing, squeezing, spreading, and sniffing passed, Reuben had grown horny and confident enough to try something new. The yellow-furred experiment wanted to rim his cute, gassy cousin. Reuben spread Stitch's butt cheeks, opened up his mouth, and stuck out his purple tongue. After getting right up close to Stitch's anus, Reuben licked his wet tongue over his sleeping cousin's pucker.

"Hmrrn...?" Stitch woozily grunted as he felt Reuben's tongue against his anus.

Reuben's reflective eyes widened. The chubby alien felt a horrible sense of dread as he realised he'd gotten overconfident and woken up Stitch.

"Cousin...?" Stitch said as he turned his head to see Reuben.

"I...uh...I know this d-doesn't look good, but I c-can explain! I...um...y-ya see, I noticed this big bug crawling over your butt and-" Reuben started to speak before he was abruptly cut off.

"Hehe...Reuben naughty~" Stitch said, a rather lustful-looking grin upon his furry face.

"H-huh?" Reuben said.

"Stitch noticed Reuben staring at Stitch's patookie earlier in the day...now Stitch definitely know Reuben like his cousin's big patookie, hehehe~" Stitch said in a playful tone. "You want to keep playing with Stitch patookie? Stitch know you were~" he continued to speak, playfully shaking his jiggly bubble butt as he did so.

Reuben swallowed down some saliva as he saw his cousin's butt cheeks jiggle and smack against each other.

"Um...w-well...if you're okay with that, then yeah! I'd love to! You're not mad, or weirded out, or anything?" Reuben said.

“Naga! Stitch like cousin Reuben lots and want him to have fun.” Stitch said while smiling sweetly. “Will probably be nice for Stitch too, hehehe~” he continued after a brief pause.

“Ha, that’s nice to hear...I like you a lot too, Stitch.” Reuben said, a warm smile upon his face. “Um, before I get started with playin’ around, I uh...I kinda wanted to request somethin’ that I thought could be fun.” Reuben went on to say.

“Hmm? What Reuben want?” Stitch said curiously.

“Well, ah, I was thinkin’...you were letting out some impressive farts in your sleep, so I was wondering if you’d be up for letting out some more over my face. Y’now...if you’re able to.” Reuben said in a rather bashful tone.

“Oooh~! Sound like fun to Stitch! Stitch make sure not to hold back his stinkiness, hehe~” Stitch said, delighted at the prospect of embracing his dirty side.

“Ha, that’s great! I really appreciate it, cuz.” Reuben said with a pleased smile. “Well, now that’s all sorted out...let’s get right to playin’ with this beautiful, blue butt~” he continued.

“Hehehe~” Stitch happily giggled while returning his head to a forward-facing position.

Reuben spread apart Stitch’s plump butt cheeks and moved his face towards his cousin’s pucker. The yellow-furred alien opened up his mouth and licked his wet tongue over Stitch’s anus. Stitch’s short, furry body trembled with pleasure as he felt Reuben’s slick, saliva-dampened tongue lovingly stroke his pucker.

“Ahhhh~ That good, Reuben~!” Stitch said, clearly pleased with how that had felt.

Happy to hear that Stitch had enjoyed his rimming, Reuben licked his wet, purple-coloured tongue all the way up Stitch’s butt crack. A trail of the experiment’s warm, sticky saliva was left upon Stitch’s butt crack and anus.

“Mmm...more~!” Stitch hornily demanded.

Reuben was more than happy to comply with Stitch’s demand. The chubby experiment repeatedly licked his tongue up Stitch’s butt crack, causing it to get progressively wetter and shinier as more drool amassed upon it. While licking his tongue over the dampened fur of his cousin’s butt crack, and the pink pucker at the centre of it, Reuben would often let out a humid huff of breath from his mouth. Stitch adored feeling the wet slickness of Reuben’s tongue, and the hot moisture of Reuben’s breath.

After rimming Stitch’s butt for thirty seconds, Reuben started tightly squeezing the big, adipose orbs in his hands. Over the next twenty seconds, both experiments let out soft moans of arousal as Reuben rimmed Stitch and played around with his plump, furry cheeks. After those twenty seconds passed, Stitch decided to reward Reuben’s pleasuring with a nice, hot blast of his flatus.

“Hrrmmngh...” Stitch groaned as he narrowed his eyes and tensed his body.

PFFRRRRrRrRrRrRRRRRRHHHT!

A powerful, low-pitched fart left Stitch’s anus. As Reuben’s mouth was open, and very close to Stitch’s ass, the cloud of hot flatus blew straight into Reuben’s maw. The chubby experiment’s body tingled with perverse pleasure as this happened. Reuben immediately felt the intensely hot and spicy heat of Stitch's fart within his mouth. Reuben found himself completely unfazed by the flavour of Stitch's flatus. The kinky experiment happily swallowed down his cousin's gas.

"Dirty, dirty, cousin~ Hehehe~" Stitch said playfully while looking back at Reuben.

"Hey, it takes one to know one~" Reuben playfully retorted.

For the next seven minutes, Reuben pleased Stitch's ass with mouth, tongue, and hands. Every couple of minutes the horny experiment would switch between licking Stitch's butt crack to kissing Stitch's anus and ass cheeks, or vice versa. Stitch rewarded his chubby cousin with a variety of farts over this time, as he frequently let rip in front of Reuben's face.

PFFRRHP!

Some of Stitch's farts were short, but spicy, toots.

HSSSSSSSSSSSS~

Some of Stitch's farts were quiet, scalding-hot hisses.

FRRRRrRrRrRrRrRRRRRRRRHHHP!

Some of Stitch's farts were loud, rumbling blasts that blew back Reuben's fur.

Reuben enjoyed feeling all of Stitch's gassy releases, regardless of how long, loud, or powerful they were. Depending on where his head was when Stitch let rip, Reuben would either indulgently inhale his cousin's flatus into his round, red-coloured nose, or he'd swallow down Stitch's gas after getting a mouthful of it.

After five minutes of pleasuring Stitch's ass and inhaling his gas passed by, Reuben felt a considerable amount of precum leak from the tip of his cock. As Reuben continued to enjoy playing with his cousin's bubble butt, and sniffing up the torrid gas that came out of it, the milky liquid trickled down his stiff shaft and dampened the light-yellow fur upon it.

After seven minutes of filthy fun, Reuben felt extremely close to orgasm. His precum-dampened cock regularly twitched and throbbed, and a noticeable pressure could be felt around his crotch. Reuben decided he wanted something spectacular to make him climax. The portly experiment gave Stitch's right butt cheek an adoring smooch before making his request.

"Hey, Stitch, I'm feelin' real close to burstin' here...you mind if I put my cock up close to your patookie? I'd love to feel you warmin' it up with a nice, hot fart." Reuben said.

"Mmn, go ahead~!" Stitch replied.

With a pleased smile upon his face, Reuben mounted Stitch. His blue-furred cousin let out a little, breathy moan as he felt Reuben's weight upon him and his body heat against him. Carefully, Reuben moved himself around atop Stitch, so his cock was slid between the long-eared experiment's plump, furry cheeks.

"Ready when you are, cuz~" Reuben said.

"Okay! Get ready for big one~" Stitch said with a playful grin upon his face.

Stitch narrowed his reflective eyes, clenched his fists, and tensed his short, furry body.

“Hrrrmnnn...” Stitch groaned.

PFFHRRRRRRrRrRrRrRrRrRrRRRRRRRRRR
RRRRRRRRRRRRRRRRHP!

A long, cheek-rippling fart erupted from Stitch’s anus, right against Reuben’s penis. Reuben could feel his cock pleasurably vibrate, as the intense heat, powerful wind, and tangible soundwaves of Stitch’s thunderous fart blasted against his member. As this happened, the chubby experiment’s cock twitched and throbbed excitedly. After about four seconds, Reuben found himself unable to hold back from climaxing any longer.

“Ahhh...ahhhngh...NYAHHHHHHHHHH~!” Reuben moaned as he orgasmed.

A long string of hot, white cum spewed out from Reuben’s cock. The stout creature’s semen messily splattered over Stitch’s blue-furred back. As soon as Reuben had shot his load, he lazily flumped down onto Stitch’s cum-stained body and let his plump, yellow-furred body relax.

“Haaah...haaah...haah, oh man, that felt good...thanks a million, Stitch...” Reuben said breathily as he laid upon his cousin’s cum-stained body.

“Reuben welcome~” Stitch said, a cute smile upon his face. “When Reuben have breath back, can Reuben help Stitch cum too?” he asked after a brief pause.

“Yeah...I’d love to!” Reuben happily replied.

As soon as Reuben had caught his breath, the yellow-furred experiment got off of Stitch and sat up on the bed. Stitch similarly sat up and requested (in his own cute way) that Reuben jerk him off. His floppy-eared cousin happily agreed to this idea. Reuben grasped the shaft of Stitch’s cock with his right hand and started to pump his hand up and down. For the next three minutes, Reuben stroked Stitch’s stiff, precum-soaked cock with his hand. The pace of the chubby alien’s pumping gradually grew quicker, and the soft moans that Stitch occasionally let out became louder and lewder.

Once those three minutes passed, Stitch blissfully moaned as he jizzed all over his own belly and chest. Now that there was a copious amount of cum splattered on both sides of his furry body, Stitch decided he should probably go clean himself up in their hotel room’s ensuite bathroom. After thanking Reuben and enjoying the feeling of afterglow for a minute or so, Stitch hopped of the bed and headed to the nearby bathroom. Reuben lay down upon Stitch’s bed, put his hands behind his head in a relaxed position, and patiently waited for his cousin to return.

As he waited, Reuben’s mind was awash with plans for filthy activities he could enjoy with his naughty, little cousin. Having Stitch suck his cock clean when he returned to the bed, followed by a slobbery make out session and plenty of intimate cuddling, was certainly something he wanted to do. The chubby experiment smiled to himself as he considered the kinds of filthy fun he could have with Stitch, now that they’d bonded like this. Reuben was certain he’d enjoy the nights of this week-long holiday even more than the days.
