

Name: Katherine Corinne.

Species: Delphox (Anthro - Witch).

Sexuality: Pansexual.

Preferred Role: Switch. (Bottom Leaning)

Age: 26.

Gender/Sex: Intersex (Female).

Height: 6 ft.

Appearance: Quite the tall Delphox lady with the usual red and yellow color scheme along with a lengthy yellow tail, much like any other Delphoxes. She has red eyes with bangs covering her right eye. She has four fingers and four toes, her fingernails being red along with her toeclaws (she also has red pawpads on her feet). She has huge breasts (about G to H cups) alongside her canine cock and balls that can go hyper sized at will. She also has a voluptuous behind and a big puffy anus that can also go hyper to convey her overall attractive appearance. She hardly wears any clothes: Just her pointy blue witch hat and a yellow ring on her right foot's second toe. This is mainly due to her thinking clothes aren't for her. She also carries around a brown stick like any other Delphoxes.

Abilities: She has Fire and Psychic based moves such as Psyshock and Mystical Fire, sometimes using these moves from her stick instead of her hands. She's also capable of using magic due to her witch status, usually being her main source of self-defense (or indulging in many pleasures). Her magic can include transforming her stick into a flaming sword, enhancing her strength (at the cost of her agility), enhancing her agility (at the cost of her strength), float into the air at will (sometimes riding on her stick to do so), transforming herself and others into something else (needs to be a specific transformation spell in order to pull this off), etc. She can also use her magic to change her sex, whether it be having her change into a guy with a very huge cock, or remain as herself but with a plump pussy added in this time around. She mainly uses her sex change magic for sexual pleasures, really. And lastly, she can use this to increase her and others body's sizes. This includes the cock, balls, breasts, anus, and pussy (Note: she can even add in extra parts of one of these body parts to herself and others if desired).

Likes: Using her magic for sexual pleasures, having sex in general, getting sweaty and musky (she does take baths sometimes, though), Rammy and his friends, Corvina, Belan Lazuli (loves filling her pussy up), Lupus (loves being filled by his cock, especially when she forms a pussy on her taint), being filled by cum in general, fruit related juices, playing soccer, collecting flowers, sandwiches of any kind, holding hands with someone (mainly those she loves), learning new magic tricks and spells, friendly spars, and hugging someone (usually resulting to her being motorboated by those she hugged, which she enjoys a lot).

Dislikes: Being drunk, alcohol in general, her magic not working properly (can happen sometimes), being discriminated for her witch status, losing her concentration when researching something, apple pies, other witches trying to kill her for her spellbook, being told to put some clothes on, thunderstorms (the loud noises from them tends to make her jump), and anyone harming her beloved friends.

Personality: She's quite the caring and enthusiastic individual who enjoys thinking of new ways to extend sexual pleasures through magic. Really, she just likes using magic in general, and have gotten around to accepting her witch side thanks to some encouragement from her girlfriend, Belan.

Background: She was quite the lonely witch, living in the Grand Forest all by herself. Katherine used to be spiteful and mean-spirited towards those who dares to enter her domain, being filled with rage because of her parents abandoning her. It was until she met Belan that she started learning to be more at peace with herself, accepting the fact that she's not a bad person for simply being an abnormal Delphox with extraordinary powers. Her love for sex was also thanks to Belan, whom the Goodra has introduced her to Rammy and his friends afterwards, too.
