

Name: Glenn Norabel.

Species: Elf (Humanoid).

Sexuality: Heterosexual.

Preferred Role: Submissive (Bottom).

Age: 50.

Gender/Sex: Female (Trans).

Height: 7 ft.

Appearance: Glenn has dark skin with freckles on her cheeks, breasts, and ass. She has a blonde, feathered cut hairstyle that shields her left eye. Much like any elves, her ears are pointy. Her hands and feet both resemble that of a human's, with blue colors painting across the fingernails and toenails retrospectively. She has a muscular built to her body, six packs and all due to the many workouts she's done in the past. She has pink eyes as well, and her clothing of choice can consist of a short blue shirt along with blue shorts—having a single blue ring around her right middle finger. Her overall looks can give off the impression that she's in her 20s.

Abilities: She can jump pretty high and because of her super strength passed down from her parents, she can carry heavy objects like a dumpster truck with ease.

Likes: Herself, sex, her friends and family, drawing, any kinds of smoothies.

Dislikes: Having her hair pulled (except during sex), artist's block, cold weather.

Personality: She's a considerate and upbeat person who loves to cheer people on at anything, including sex. She also prefers to be with men, but wouldn't care much about doing it with a woman, too. She grew up and lives in North Nookwill, loving the hot weather along with the incredibly horny people there. She's also great gym buddies with Lupus and Terra.
